

HUGHES ANSWERS HECKLER'S QUERIES

Auditor Asks Whether He Would Repeal
The Adamson Law

CAUSES MUCH CONFUSION

Nominee Replies That a "Surrender Could Not Be

CROWD CHEERS SPEAKER

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Oct. 17.—Charles E. Hughes, facing a friendly audience sprinkled with hecklers tonight replied in answer to a question as to whether he would repeal the Adamson law if elected president that "a surrender could not be repealed."

Mr. Hughes was asked what he would have done to avert the threatened railroad strike.

"If arbitration had been refused," Mr. Hughes replied, "I should have gone right to the American people, stated the facts and put the responsibility where it belonged."

"I should at the same time," Mr. Hughes continued, "have secured a commission of inquiry so impartial, so fair, as to command the respect of the entire country and directing public opinion to that end there is no group of men in the United States that would have dared hold up the instrumentalities of commerce if that were done."

The heckler still had another question to ask.

"Mr. Hughes," he said, "any question that is asked here is asked with no enmity toward the candidate of the Republican party. You would have done all that within twenty-four hours?"

"Why, sir," the nominee replied, "the business men of the United States thru the chamber of commerce of the United States on July 29th, sent a telegram to the president asking for an inquiry. A resolution was introduced in the senate for an inquiry and was laid on the table. For months the business men of the United States asked for an inquiry as to this very matter and the crisis was allowed to be developed when it was unnecessary that it should have been developed and there was adequate time to ascertain what the facts were."

The heckling was attended by the utmost confusion. The audience which had cheered and applauded loudly in the earlier parts of Mr. Hughes' address was incensed at the interruptions, and there were many cries of "put him out," "sit down," and "shut up."

As the nominee replied to each question the audience cheered its approval.

In the first part of his speech, Mr. Hughes was also heckled.

A man with a big stick in the gallery sought to heckle the nominee on labor affairs. He asked a question that apparently was misunderstood in the confusion and Mr. Hughes, amid a roar of applause read what the Legislative News, the official organ of organized labor, had to say in praise of his record as governor. When the applause died, the man arose again. The crowd would have put him out and for more than a minute the audience was a tumult of confusion.

Mr. Hughes with outstretched hands sought to quiet the crowd. He finally made himself heard.

"Let the gentleman ask any question he wants to," the nominee said. "What do you want to say?"

Among hisses and boos the man asked his question waving the stick in his hand.

"Evidently according to what you have said," the man began, "the labor field has taken you from the bench and put you up as their standard bearer. Is that right?"

"There were cries of 'no, no,' and 'put him out.' It was some time before Mr. Hughes could make himself heard."

"One moment," the nominee shouted to the crowd, "one moment please." When some sort of order was restored the nominee went on.

"I am not here, sir, as the standard bearer of any one group or set but desirous to serve the whole of the American people."

The house roared again, the heckler sat down and the nominee went on with his speech.

"Now that I am on this personal note," Mr. Hughes said, "let me recall some of the unusual circumstances under which I entered public life. You may recall that there were some important investigations in the City of New York. The charge to be made for gas. I was requested by a legislative committee to undertake this investigation. As the result the City of New York had legislation in its favor, by which the consumers of gas paid a rate fixed by law, and sustained by the courts, of eighty cents."

"Then there followed an investigation of much wider concern. It related to the security of the homes

VOTE TO REMOVE PRESENT PRAYER FOR PRESIDENT

House of Deputies of Episcopal Church Recommend Substitution of Evening Prayer.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 17.—The house of deputies of the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church today voted to remove the present prayer for the president of the United States from the service of morning prayer and to substitute the evening prayer.

The morning prayer as now in the prayer book asks for the president "in health, and prosperity to long live."

The evening prayer, while containing an intercession for the president has no reference to long life, health, nor prosperity. Neither does it ask for his eternal felicity. Any change which was adopted at the suggestion of the commission on prayer book must be approved by the house of bishops by the next general convention before it can become effective.

In the house of deputies the day largely was occupied by the reading of the proposed changes in the book of Common Prayer. The recommendations of the commission appointed at the last general convention to study the program and were read and discussed section by section.

Members of the commission answered inquiries and offered explanations and in practically every case the changes, being in the interest of the abbreviation and simplification, were approved.

The house of bishops, the upper body, holding its meetings behind closed doors, also spent the day in considering the proposed changes.

Skilful parliamentary maneuvering saved the resolution admitting women to membership in the house of deputies from being killed by an adverse report.

Robert H. Gardner of Maine, who sponsored the resolution explained a woman is no longer a chattel as she was regarded 1909 years ago when the church was founded.

A larger religious life in the homes of the United States, was urged in a resolution introduced in the house of deputies by Rev. Charles N. Tindell of Williamsport, Pa. This resolution which was referred to the committee said there had been serious changes in the family and the home life of the American people during the present generation and that it is to the church that the people look for a different leadership in conserving the best elements. The resolution provides for a commission of five laymen, five clergymen and five laymen to "study the whole question of the present status and condition of the home and family life of the people of the United States in its relations to religion and morals," making a report to the 1919 conventions.

AWAITS ANNOUNCEMENT OF AMERICA'S ATTITUDE

England Will Not Make Representations Regarding U-53

Viscount Grey Makes Statement in House of Lords—Assumes American Government Is Making Full Inquiry.

London, Oct. 17.—The British government will not make any official representation to the United States concerning the German submarine U-53, pending an announcement of its attitude by the American government, said Viscount Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, in the house of lords today.

In reply to a question concerning the attitude of the United States toward British patrols, Viscount Grey said that the United States admitted the British ships were not exceeding their legal rights under international law, but that the American government complained of their presence on the ground of the irritation which the continued presence of belligerent warships off the coast of the United States naturally caused in a neutral country. He declared that the United States had requested Great Britain very emphatically not to patrol off its coast and said that instructions were sent to the British ships there to avoid causing any unnecessary irritation and to comply as far as possible with the American request.

"With regard to the U-53," the foreign secretary continued, "we do not know what steps were taken by the United States for patrolling its waters or in regard to her coming into port and securing information from newspapers. We do not know whether it is true that American warships got out of the submarine's way. That is a matter for the American government only, and we assume that government is making full inquiries. We also assume it will announce its attitude in due course, make any official representation on the subject on the submarine."

The question concerning the German submarine raid in American waters was raised by Baron Charles Beresford, former commander of the British home fleet; Earl Grey, former governor-general of Canada, and others. Baron Beresford asked whether British cruisers were removed from American waters out of American objections, and if so what steps the government proposed for the protection of British vessels. He characterized the submarine reply as at least curt and said the American ideas of neutrality were curious.

Earl Grey wanted an assurance that the report was untrue that American commanders of destroyers had acceded to the request of the German commander to clear out of the way and give him room to blow up ships.

Investigation Not Finished
Washington, Oct. 17.—There have been no indications in official circles here that the United States would make any declaration of policy regarding the U-53's visit to the western Atlantic unless a violation of international law developed. The raid off Nantucket is viewed as an isolated case, in no way re-opening the general submarine issue and it is understood that all the information gathered thus far indicates that the submarine's activities were held within legal bounds. The investigation, however, has not been completed.

Officials have consistently declined to make any formal comment on the U-53's exploits while the inquiry is in progress, but surprise was apparent tonight at the suggestion that the submarine may have secured information illegal thru newspapers taken aboard at Newport. That point apparently has not been considered here as entering prominently into the case.

FARMERS' CONGRESS OPENS AT INDIANAPOLIS

Official Delegates From Forty States Register.

The president also commended the organization for its work in the past in obtaining and asking for the passage of legislation in the interest of the farmer.

Mr. Vrooman will be given a place on the program Friday morning.

ENTENTE LANDS MARINES IN GREECE

Occupy Railway Station At Piraeus And Buildings
In Athens

GREEKS THROG STREETS

Detachment of French Sailors
Driven Back by Hostile Crowd

HISS FRENCH COMMANDER

ATHENS, Monday, Oct. 16.—Via London, Oct. 17.—Marines from the ships of the entente powers to the number of about a thousand have been landed at Piraeus and have occupied the railway station at Piraeus and several buildings in Athens. Immediately this became known the streets of Athens swarmed with Greeks frantically cheering and chanting the Greek national anthem.

Great crowds marched through the streets, thousands gathering in the neighborhood of the postoffice square. The war minister, General Dracos, ordered out Greek troops and marines to guard every approach to the square in order to prevent any clash between Greek civilians and the French, who occupied that section establishing a complete cordon about the French and taking all precautions to avoid any incident or accident capable of starting strife.

It is impossible to predict whether trouble can be prevented throughout the night. The Greek government is fully alive to the fact that Greece's fate hangs on the prevention of further measures on the part of the French commander.

Earlier in the day a review by King Constantine of the sailors belonging to the vessels of the Greek navy, which were taken possession of by the entente allies, was made the occasion of an immense royalist demonstration, crowds parading the streets hauling life-size portraits of the sovereign and wildly cheering for the monarch. Admiral Damianos, minister of marine, read an order of the day praising the loyalty of the sailors and complimenting them on their conduct under most trying circumstances.

After the ceremony the king assembled the officers about him and addressed them, personally expressing pride that they had scorned offers of money and honors and had remained faithful to their oath and to their country. He gave his word that he would stand by them to the end against whatever consequences their loyalty might entail.

Situation Appears Dangerous.

London, Oct. 17.—A Reuter's dispatch from Athens says:

"The situation appears to be dangerous. There have been royalist demonstrations in the streets. Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the entente allied fleet in the Mediterranean, was hissed and a detachment of French sailors was driven back by a hostile crowd."

"A procession of some 4,000 malcontents, headed by the Greek and American flags, stopped outside the American legation, protested against the landing of foreign marines and demanded the protection of the American minister, who was absent."

"The demonstrators then paraded the streets singing the Greek national anthem."

This address is expected to have an important bearing on the hyphenated issue of the campaign.

The president will return to Long Branch Friday by way of Alliance, Pittsburgh, Altoona, Huntington and Harrisburg. Mrs. Wilson, Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the White House physician, will accompany him on the trip.

War News Summarized

With the occupation of Athens and Piraeus by marines from the warships of the entente powers, a tense situation has arisen in Athens. Great crowds of royalists have paraded the streets of the Greek capital cheering the king and cordons of Greek troops and marines have been thrown about the railway stations, city hall and other points occupied by the entente forces to prevent clashes between them and the royalists. An unofficial dispatch says Admiral Du Fournet was hissed by throngs in the streets of Athens and that a detachment of French marines was driven back by the hostile crowd.

King Constantine, in a speech to the officers of his fleet, told them he would stand by them, no matter what consequences might follow their loyalty to Greece.

Volhynia, Galicia and Transylvania are still the points where the heaviest fighting is taking place. Along the Somme front in France, bombardments alone have prevailed, except to the east of Belloy-En-Santerre, where the Germans threw two attacks against the French, only to be repulsed.

In Macedonia the hostilities have been confined mainly to patrol engagements and artillery duels. Bad weather has set in throughout the Austro-Italian theater and with snow in the mountains and rain in the valleys little fighting of moment has taken place.

Continuing their violent offensive in Galicia, the Austro-Germans, according to both Berlin and Vienna, have taken trenches over a front of one and a quarter miles from the Russians and made prisoner thirty officers and 1,900 men. West of Lutsk in Volhynia the Russians attacked violently many times, but according to Vienna, were everywhere repulsed with great loss in the southern Carpathians, near Dorna Watra, additional heights have been taken from the Russians by the Teutonic allies.

In Transylvania the Roumanians fighting near the border passes continue tenaciously to hold back the Austro-Germans almost everywhere. In the Usul Valley they have driven the invaders back across the Roumanian border.

No official report will be made for the present by Great Britain regarding the German submarine warfare off the American coast, according to an announcement made in the house of lords by Viscount Grey, the British foreign secretary.

SEVEN DIE IN NEW YORK FIRE

Flames Destroy Two
Factories with Material
Lose of $250,000

TWO OTHERS MISSING

Charred Bodies Are Not Found
Until Flames Are Extinguished

CHEMICALS CAUSE FIRE

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Seven persons were burned to death and two others who are missing are believed dead in a fire which destroyed two factories in the manufacturing section of Queens borough late today with a material loss estimated at $250,000.

The charred bodies were not found until the flames had been extinguished and firemen were pouring water into the ruins of the buildings. Search is being made tonight for two persons still missing, but it is believed they perished. All those burned were employed in the plant of the Oak & Dye Manufacturing Company where the flames started. The known dead:

Harry C. Cook, 42 years old, married; treasurer of the Oak & Dye Company.

Frederick Chrisman, 35, married; head bookkeeper of the company.

Robert Vogel, 30, married; assistant bookkeeper.

Miss Emily Kiensel, 22; book-keeper.

Miss — Daupemann, 20; book-keeper.

Miss E. Faurmann, 20; stenographer.

The fire started among chemicals on the first floor of the Oak's building and spread with such rapidity that the office force was trapped on the second floor.

In addition to the office building five one-story storage buildings of the Oak & Dye Company were destroyed. From these buildings the fire spread to the Astoria Veneer Mill and Lumber Yard, where many thousands of feet of lumber was destroyed.

The police have learned that an electrician at work on the first floor of the dye-making plant, making repairs to the electric light fixtures, dropped a ladder which struck a jar containing chemicals that burst into flames.

There were six young women and the three men on the second floor when the fire began. Not one of them has been seen since.

A steel stairway led from the upper floor to the first floor on the inside of the building. There were also two iron fire escapes and one steel stairway escape on the outside.

A half dozen windows were located close to where the young women were at work and it would have been a drop of only sixteen feet to the street. The authorities believe the employees were suffocated by chemical fumes and were unable to attempt escape.

As a fitting accompaniment for the Democratic donkey the Morgan County Democratic Central committee has been endeavoring to secure a steam calliope. It was stated yesterday that the plan had been abandoned since the heartless Chicago owners would not part with one of these "musical" instruments for less than $250, even for such a limited period as that intervening between now and election day. Local Democrats thought that they could secure better music and more votes by spending the $250 in some other way.

Chicago Drys Have Big Job.
The drys in Chicago have much of the enthusiasm that dominates the national candidates on the Prohibition ticket, who are making just as there a campaign as if they hoped to be elected in November. In Chicago the dry federation already has $50,000 pledged toward the campaign expenses and it is hoped to make a saloonless city in 1918. So much progress has been made by the dry forces in this state and in others through the union that nothing any more seems impossible of accomplishment. But certainly it will be a huge task to put on a successful campaign in a great city like Chicago, where the problems in connection with saloons are much different from those presented in smaller cities. The great foreign population in Chicago will undoubtedly be a big factor in the struggle.

The Valuable Enigma.
From the New York Sun.
Our always interesting and sometimes astonishing neighbor the World new advances this reason for voting against Mr. Hughes:
"To elect Mr. Hughes is to elect an enigma, a conundrum, a puzzle, a conjecture."
And yet the exceedingly perceptive Mr. Joseph Pulitzer found Mr. Hughes a little of an enigma, so

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

EXRULY KIDS
I don't like little Albert Clarence, though he's a sprightly lad, because he won't obey his parents, his mother and his dad. This Clarence boy is strangely gifted, he is no person's fool, and divers prizes he has lifted down at the village school. He knows what war or revolution distinguished every king and when it comes to election, he makes the welkin ring. It sends a sort of thrill and shiver all up my spine and neck, when he arises to deliver "The Boy and Burning Deck." In diversologies excellent, in Greek he cuts much grass, and when it comes to hard word spelling, he cleans up all his class. But when his mother or his father remarks, "Go hunt the eggs," he seems to think it too much bother to exercise his legs. And when his father or his mother observes, "Go feed the cat," he says, to them "My little brother is here—let him do that." There are no flies on Albert Clarence, his teachers all agree; but kids who don't obey their parents don't make a hit with me.

easy a conundrum, so soluble a puzzle, so promising a conjecture, that he offered him $100,000 to administer the complicated fortunes of that child of his genius, that idol of his heart's dearest affections, the World.
Our esteemed neighbor continues: "Mr. Hughes might make a good president after he had two or three years' experience in the office."
And yet the late Mr. Joseph Pulitzer did not consider it necessary to provide that Mr. Hughes should undergo an apprenticeship of two or three years, or two or three months, or even two or three days, before intrusting to his judgment, his integrity, his capacity for large affairs, the most precious of Mr. Joseph Pulitzer's earthly possessions.

Labor Makes One Issue.
No matter whether one agrees with all the principles that President Walker of the Illinois Federation of Labor advocates, there must come admiration for the singleness of his purpose to make the cause of labor first and all other considerations secondary.

In his address before the federation at Quincy President Walker urged the delegates not to take sides in the wet and dry issue but to work and vote only for those candidates fair to labor, and he recommended the conference go on record to declare that the attitude of union labor is where the wet candidates are in opposition to the labor movement, the labor movement will fight them, and where the dry candidates are in opposition to the labor movement labor will fight them.
Other organizations for specific purposes might well imitate the federation of labor in its devotion and enthusiasm for the one cause. Many movements fail because the sponsors willingly or unwittingly mix with various entangling alliances.

Pinchot is Plain Spoken.

No statement by a Progressive in the present campaign has been more pointed than that of Gifford Pinchot, who has given his reasons why he cannot support President Wilson. He declares that it was only after he began to check up the president that he changed from the good opinion he held. The statement contains these sentences: "We have all heard President Wilson declare for efficiency in government and have seen him set the pork barrel first and throw efficiency away. I have known official Washington from the inside for six administrations. In that time the government business has never been so badly done and so extravagantly as it is now done under Wilson."
"We have all heard him announce himself as a champion of civil service reform and have seen him turn one government department over to the spoilsman as no other president has done in twenty years. We have all heard him announce himself as president of all the people and have seen him as the most partisan president of his generation—flout and oppose the Progressives, whom now because he needs them he seeks to conciliate and enlist."

Smaller Sunday Papers

Is Reasonable Request.
A number of papers throughout the country are facing suspension because their print paper contracts have expired and if they purchase print it must be at prices more than double that they have been paying. It is largely because of this condition that the federal trade commission has addressed letters to the publishers of all the large Sunday newspapers in the U. S. asking them to cut down the size of these papers. After study of the situation the commission is firmly of the opinion that the only way of securing price reduction is by increasing the output or reducing the consumption, and as the manufacturers are showing that production now is at the maximum with present equipment, the only relief can come from a lesser consumption. The paper saved for the general supply if Sunday metropolitan newspapers were cut down would be a big factor in the situation.

ARE RAISING MILLIONS

FOR EDUCATIONAL WORK
Twenty million dollars for educational work within the next two years is the objective of the Educational Jubilee campaign now being conducted in the Methodist church. Dr. J. R. Harker, who has just returned from Wichita, Kan., helped begin a campaign for $600,000 for Southwestern college at Winfield, Kan., representing a phase of this movement, from which eight or ten leading Methodist institutions will benefit.

The campaign in Kansas is in charge of Dr. J. W. Hancher, who directed a similar campaign for Illinois Woman's college. Dr. Harker is a member of the executive committee of seven planning the campaign.

WESTMINSTER SUPPER.

A cafeteria supper was given in the parlors of Westminster church Tuesday evening which was well attended and in every way successful. The serving of the supper began at 6 o'clock and the patronage was liberal. Officers of the Ladies' Aid society of the church, Mrs. J. H. Rayhill, Mrs. Easley Moore, Mrs. William McCormick and Miss Ainslie Moore were in charge and they were assisted by a large number of others. Members of the mission band of which Miss Jessie Holmes is the teacher, had a candy table which was well patronized. The menu was appetizing and the patrons were well pleased with the service.

The Federal Reserve Triumph.

The Wilson administration is claiming much credit for the passage of the federal reserve act which, it is said, has furnished a needed elasticity for the currency of this country and makes practically impossible a business panic of the kind occurring at intervals in former years. Congressman Foss, who spoke in Jacksonville last week, takes a hopeful view of the benefits which will accrue to the country from this act, but pointed out clearly that if the law does give all the benefits claimed that the credit must be shared with the Republican party, for the federal reserve act is the outgrowth of the Aldrich-Vreeland act, passed during a Republican administration as a direct result of the monetary commission investigation for which the late Senator Aldrich provided in his bill. But putting aside all political considerations, it is an open secret that a great majority of the banks of the country do not look upon the federal reserve act as having swallowed up all of our financial troubles and have provided certain safety in times of business stress.

It is noteworthy that thus far the only banks operating under the federal reserve act are those compelled to by law and many of them are chafing under the restrictions. So the situation is presented from a monetary viewpoint of more banks outside the reserve system than in it, and a great many of those within the system dissatisfied with its working. The simple truth seems to be that the federal reserve act is the outgrowth of the result of both Republicans and Democrats and that the bill needs certain amendments before it will fill the large place in American finance that it should.

Mrs. Funk in Wheeling.

In view of the fact that Mrs. Antoinette Funk is advertised to speak at a Democratic rally in this county tomorrow the following bit of history becomes particularly interesting.

On the fourth day of May, 1916, at a Republican State Convention, held in the City of Wheeling, State of West Virginia, Mrs. Antoinette Funk addressed the convention relative to Woman Suffrage, and among her remarks she gave allegiance to the Republican Party and to its cause unequivocally. Her address was reported and referred to in the Wheeling Intelligence on the 5th day of May, 1916, as follows:

"Chairman Wells said that the Committee had accorded the advocates of equal suffrage a hearing and that Mrs. Antoinette Funk, of Illinois, would address the convention. In his introduction the chairman said that Mrs. Funk was the granddaughter of James Leyland, who named the Republican party. Her introduction was loudly greeted and as she took her place on the platform, all the delegates arose to their feet.

"The speaker in beginning her talk, said: 'I am not a Republican because my father was, or because my grandfather was, but because I believe the principles of that party are correct and that the principles of the Democratic party are wrong. In all of my regard for the Republican party and my belief in its principles, I believe that in the struggle for equality woman suffrage should be non-partisan.'

"It is my firm belief that the great Republican party is the suffrage party, and as I look over the splendid faces here today, I feel that the women of this country need not fear to trust the ideals of Americanism in the hands of this great party, when such men as these get together to discuss public affairs. How do you eastern men feel? Do you realize that Woodrow Wilson was elected by a little over 6,000,000 votes, and that the women of the west are holding the balance of power?"

"Do you know that Illinois leads in the voting of this country? That we have crowded the great Empire State into second, and the great Keystone state into third place? The women are not afraid to trust men of the Republican party in the affairs of state—we know that they will handle the affairs of the country nobly and well—but women's places are in the homes, you say, and we admit it. Because of this, men, we ask the vote?"

We are crowded for room, hence our Coat and Suit sale, which will save you many dollars. J. Herman.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION CLOSED

The two days school of instruction of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows closed at Illini temple Tuesday evening. At the afternoon session the unwritten work of the order was exemplified. At the evening session Grand Warden Blood exemplified the ritualistic work of the first degree. Mr. Blood is one of the best posted men on the ritual of the order in the country and his work proved most pleasing and instructive to the members.

In addition to Grand Warden Blood there were present at the Tuesday sessions, Grand Master Crowder of Peoria and Deputy Grand Master A. Otis Arnold of Quincy. All of the grand lodge officers made talks to the members. Grand Master Crowder gave a stirring address on Odd Fellowship and its aims and purposes, which was heard with close attention by those present.

There was a large attendance of members of Urania and Illini, the local lodges. There also were representatives present from out of town lodges as follows: Arcadia, Lynnville, Murrayville, White Hall, Chicago, Quincy, Peoria, Meredosia, Pearl, Essex, and a representative of an Ohio lodge was also a visitor. Grand Warden H. M. Blood will hold an instruction school in White Hall Oct. 30.

NEW YORK HAS MANY COUNTY HOSPITALS

Interesting Map Shows Progress in Fight Being Made Against Tuberculosis in Empire State.

Mrs. A. H. Adafs, who recently returned from New York, brought a map health bulletin issued by the New York department of health which shows in a very clear way the progress in providing hospitals for tuberculosis patients. The counties black in color have no hospital beds for this purpose; shaded counties have hospital beds voted for but not yet provided; white counties have hospital beds available and in a number of cases more authorized. There are fifteen counties where provision has been made; thirteen counties where the facilities have been authorized but not provided. Twenty-five counties are "black" and without hospital beds. But in considering the comparatively few years during which organized fight has been made for the establishment of county tuberculosis hospitals in New York the showing is remarkable and indicates how rapidly the people there are understanding how great and important is the movement which is placing under control the disease which has cost the state such vast sums of money and so many lives.

Illinois is far behind New York in this regard, as all of the 102 counties except Cook and Lake would be black if a map similar to that published in New York were issued by the Illinois department of health. The oldest of the county hospitals in New York were opened in 1909, and the growth of the movement for proper county facilities has therefore been in six years' time.

HEAVY REGISTRATION FOR NEXT ELECTION

Vote Early Must be Slogan For November 7th if All Votes Get Into the Ballot Boxes.

Tuesday was the first registration day for the coming election and it is already very certain that election officials will be very busy November 7. In district No. 11, with polling place at Howe's store on Clay avenue, 478 men and 490 women were registered. In district No. 5, polling place at Briggs' store, the list of names numbered more than 1,400. This large registration is, of course, due to the fact that women have a right to vote for president. In most of the polling places the number of booths will be increased but even so the ballots will have to be cast at the rate of about three a minute. In this election more than ever the slogan of both parties will be "Vote early." Too often this advice is unheeded. This year, unless it is realized that voting must begin early, the election officials will not be able to take care of those who come. The polls must close promptly at the hour fixed by law if there are voters present at that time, who have not had the opportunity to cast their ballots because of the crowded condition of the polling places. It will not be the fault of the election officials and they will have no authority to extend the time.

Yesterday, in accordance with the law, the election officials had the right to enter the names in the poll books and their work consisted mainly in copying names from the records made by canvassers who have gone thru the voting districts. In precincts where such records were not available the judges used poll books of previous elections and copied names. The lists are more difficult than usual to compile, not only because of the large number of names but for the added fact that women must be designated by their first names and not by the names of their husbands. The indications grow that both parties will make strenuous efforts to get out the woman's vote, for it is realized that a great deal depends upon what action the women take in the two suffrage states with their possibly 4,000,000 woman's votes.

PERSONAL INJURY SUIT

Hugh Riley some time since brought suit against the Chicago & Alton railroad for $10,000 on account of a broken arm and wrist and the case is now on trial in the Sangamon county circuit court. LARGE CONSIGNMENTS OF TOBACCO BEING HELD

England Claims They Fail to Comply With Recent Arrangement—May Cause Heavy Losses in U. S.

London, Oct. 17.—Large consignments of tobacco from the United States for Dutch and Scandinavian ports are being held here on the claim of the government that they fail to comply with the recent arrangement under which cargoes paid for before August 4th, and shipped prior to August 30th (might proceed to neutral destinations).

May Cause Heavy Losses.—Washington, Oct. 17.—Great Britain's detention of American tobacco shipments is expected here to cause heavy losses to members of the trade in this country unless a modification of the British ruling can be secured. The state department already has made informal representation and officials said tonight they hoped to clear up the misunderstanding to the satisfaction of American interests.

Besides the consignments reported held in London, American tobacco valued at more than $1,500,000 is detained aboard British ships and in warehouses at Danish ports on the charge that its shipment violated the shipping arrangements.

The interpretation applied to the arrangement by British officials was as much a surprise to officials here as it was to the American shippers. In her previous agreements for passage of shipments thru the blockade lines, it was declared tonight, Great Britain never attempted to apply the doctrine of ultimate sale. The understanding here was that only a bona fide sale to European wholesalers would be required in the case of the tobacco consignments.

The regulation which stopped American tobacco shipments was issued on July 15th, by the British trade department under the general authority of the orders in council. It prohibited the importation of tobacco to Germany or to German dealers in countries contiguous to Germany. A serious disruption to the American tobacco industry resulted and the state department finally secured an agreement under which all tobacco bought and paid for before August 4th, and shipped before August 30th, was to be admitted to Denmark and other neutral European countries. A large quantity of American tobacco at once was released. Most of it had reached European ports when it developed that Great Britain interpreted the agreement to apply not to transactions in this country, but to final transactions in Europe.

CENTENARY CHURCH IS FIFTY YEARS OLD

ANNIVERSARY WILL BE OBSERVED WITH SPECIAL SERVICES.

Rev. E. L. Fletcher Has Arranged a Program of Interest for Three Days Beginning Sunday — Dr. Krantz of New Jersey Will be the Principal Speaker—Music is in Charge of Rev. W. S. Phillips.

In honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the building of Centenary church the new pastor, Rev. E. L. Fletcher, has arranged a program of special interest. Next Sunday morning and evening Rev. John Krantz, D. D., of Paterson, N. J., will occupy the pulpit. There will be special exercises also Monday and Tuesday evenings, with Rev. W. S. Phillips of Cerro Gordo in charge of the music, which will be featured.

Present and former members of the church and the public generally are looking forward to the services with a great deal of interest. Rev. Mr. Fletcher feels especially fortunate in having arranged for the coming of Dr. Krantz, who is one of the prominent men of the Methodist ministry. He was born in Racine, Wis., in 1852, and was educated at Beloit college, where he received the degree of B. A. Subsequently he took his A. M. degree from Northwestern and received the D. D. degree there in 1900. He was manager of the New York Methodist from 1875 to 1877 and the year following entered the Newark (N. J.) conference. For nineteen years he was a pastor and then for a period of four years served as presiding elder, and gave up that work to become the general sales agent of the Methodist Book Concern of New York.

Dr. Krantz has been a member of four Methodist general conferences beginning in 1900, and he is now a member of the board of managers of the board of foreign missions. That he has done excellent work in church building is indicated by the fact that he has raised more than $2,000,000 at dedicatory exercises for the payment of church debts. He is known in literary work and is the author of a history of the Turkish-Greek war.

Some Church History.

It is now fifty years since Centenary church people had the present building constructed. The contractor was a man named Underwood who built the court house and while in the city put up the present commodious structure occupied by that strong religious organization.

Somewhere about 1820, Joseph Basey, a Godly man from Jersey county, delivered what has been said to be the first sermon ever heard in this county. A conference then comprised a large territory and this place was in the Missouri conference and in 1821 that body sent Rev. John Glanville to the Sangamon circuit which included Jacksonville. John Jordan then lived in a house just north of the present location of Passavant hospital and there the first good old fashioned "class" was organized and for several years preaching services were conducted in the same place and later the log school-house was used alternately by the Methodists and Presbyterians.

In 1824 the Illinois conference was organized and Jacksonville was a part of the Mississippi circuit and three years later the name was changed to Apple Creek circuit. The church continued to grow and in 1830 the Jacksonville circuit was formed and then the Methodists decided they wanted a church building which they had constructed of brick, the first one of the kind in the country, and it stood on East Morgan street, probably just west of the location of Zahn's garage.

Three years later Jacksonville rose to the dignity of a station and the first pastor was Rev. T. J. Starr, father of Col. Matt Starr, the gallant young cavalry officer who died of wounds received in the vicinity of Nashville and for whom the local G. A. R. post is named. The congregation outgrew its quarters in three years and in 1836-7 a new brick church was built on East State street about where the Batz building now stands or just east of that. It had a basement and was quite pretentious for those days. It was called the "East Charge." Rev. John T. Mitchell was the pastor at that time and was a capable and efficient man.

The church continued to grow until another swarm left the parent hive and formed the "West Charge," now Grace. The church for that body was built on the present premises, later remodeled and afterward torn away to make room for the present elegant structure.

When Rev. A. Sample was pastor of the church in 1866 it was decided to have a new edifice and the result of the decision was the present fine structure. Among the men prominent, though not at all alone, in the work were Michael Rapp, John and Wesley Mathers, Emanuel Hamilton and others.

When Rev. J. B. Corrington was pastor, 1847-8, there was a great revival resulting in the conversion of more than 600 persons, the Hon. Richard Yates being one of the number. Rev. D. F. Howe was one of the great orators who have served the church and his discourses are yet remembered with pride and satisfaction.

The annual conference has been entertained by the church as follows: 1832, '37, '41, '51, '78, '79, and '90. The pastors have been: 1821 John Glanville, 1822 Thomas Rice, 1823 John Miller, 1824-1825 William Medford, 1826 Thomas Randle, Isaac S. House, 1827 Isaac Scarritt, John T. FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTE-BOOK.

Retired from the University of Minnesota faculty two years ago under the old age rule of the regents, Prof. John F. Dewey, former dean of the college of science, literature and arts, has gone to China to resume active teaching. He will teach mathematics in the University of Nanking, where all instruction is given in English. Dean Downey is 70 years old. Though he is paid enough money under the Carnegie pension fund to enable him to live without working, the aged educator refuses to be placed on the shelf, even if he has to go to China to teach. He will receive nothing for his pedagogical work in China, this under the restrictions of the Carnegie pension fund. This repudiation of the Osler theory is of interest to the entire northwest, for Dean Downey has been a teacher in the northwestern states for nearly 35 years.

Providing adequate education for young women of India is one of the principal tasks before the Christian church in that country today, according to an opinion recently expressed before the Northern Minnesota conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church by Miss Flora Robinson, head of Thoburn College for women at Lucknow, India. Miss Robinson is a daughter of Bishop J. E. Robinson of India and has been a resident of that country for six years. She said that even among women of the highest caste, culture was at a premium. The barriers, however, are falling, and during the last ten years notable advance has been made, the custom of sending their daughters to Christian colleges spreading more and more among Mohammedan and Buddhist aristocrats.

In response to the growing realization of the public that beauty has its useful aspects, New York University is this year establishing a course for the layman showing the practical value of beauty and a knowledge of its principles in the field of fashion and home decoration. The course will be held in the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the application of artistic principles to the matters of everyday life will be based on a study of museum originals in furniture, textiles, dress, rugs, mosaics, tiles, poetry and jewelry. Planning ensemble designs in the decoration of rooms, and the selection of harmonious color schemes will be a feature of the course.

of America. It related to the security of those who thru life insurance had endeavored to pay their lives and their children against the hazard of untimely death. We had in that a very laborious inquiry. It brought to my attention a great variety of matters deeply affecting the interests of the community.

"We endeavored to safeguard the policy holders of the nation by wise legislation regulating our life insurance enterprise. We endeavored to see to it that public supervision should be entirely impartial and wholly efficient in the interest of those concerned in this great enterprise."

"I was called from this to the governorship of the state. I went with a great deal of information with respect to the conduct of public business. I went to the governor's chair with this determination, that while I sat there there should be no influence or power which should in any way affect my action so as to be in the slightest degree injurious to the welfare of all the people in that state."

The crowd interrupted with a yell of approval.

"Now I refer to this," Mr. Hughes continued, "because there has been recently an extraordinary statement made that in some way I have become a sponsor for invisible government, such a preposterous charge needs no attention and yet I should like to take advantage of the fact that it had been uttered to remind the American people of one or two things."

"In the first place, during my governorship at Albany, there was no barter of appointments for legislative office. In the next place legislation was considered upon its merits in the open."

"There was no semblance of invisible government. You cannot find a man in New York state who would stand up and honestly say that during my term there was a suggestion of any secret or improper influence with respect to executive action at any time."

SEEK TO MAKE SCHOOLS COMMUNITY CENTERS

Indianapolis, Oct. 17.—How every rural school may be made a community center is one of the questions to come before the Farmers' National Congress, which opened here today. Another phase of the rural educational work in which the congress has taken an interest is how to bring the country school more directly under the supervision of the superintendents.

The question of supervision has been troublesome, because in most states the superintendent of county schools often has clerical duties to look after which prevent him from getting away from his desk. The congress proposes to remedy this, that the superintendent be relieved of all clerical duties and provided with a means of traveling with the speed necessary for his respective district.

To raise the standard of teachers the congress proposes that rural instructors be picked from those in touch with rural conditions and in sympathy with them. By making a community center of the schools, some of the members of the congress say they believe it will be possible to interest better teachers and arouse more enthusiasm among those already engaged in teaching in the country districts.

Other topics to be discussed by the congress which is to last three days, include road tax problems, road building, soil fertility, water power conservation, forestry conservation, marketing problems and the rural credits law. Among the speakers whose names are on the program are Gifford Pinchot, Hoke Smith, United States senator from Georgia; Representative Ralph Moss of Indiana and Henry S. Graves, chief of the U. S. Forestry service.

A. B. HEWETT DIED SUDDENLY AT PEKIN

Father of Mrs. W. F. Widmayer Found Dead in His Office—A Resident Here Many Years Ago.

A telegram received Tuesday by Mrs. W. F. Widmayer brought the news of the death of her father, Alfred B. Hewett, at Pekin. No particulars have been received other than that Mr. Hewett was found dead at the office of the internal revenue department, where he had been an employee for a great many years.

It was twenty-eight years ago that Mr. Hewett removed from Jacksonville but he is well remembered by a large number of people here. He served during the Civil war and was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. Older citizens remember Mr. Hewett as a valued citizen, a man whose exemplary life gave him the esteem of his fellowmen. The deceased is survived by his wife and his son and daughter by his first marriage, Mrs. William F. Widmayer of this city, and Harry Hewett of St. Paul, Minn. W. F. Widmayer went to Pekin Tuesday afternoon to assist in making arrangements for the funeral. It is possible that the remains will be brought here but the announced intention last night was to have interment in Pekin.

Miss Rena Lazelle, teacher of voice at Illinois Woman's College, has been engaged as soloist by the St. Louis orchestra at St. Louis, January 7. Miss Lazelle will sing an aria and a group of songs.

Miss Lazelle has been in Jacksonville and the middle west but slightly over a year, but in that short time has won for herself a large circle of admirers by her beautiful voice, splendid musicianship and finished artistry. It is a matter of pride to Jacksonville that a musician resident here should be so highly honored.

H. P. CALDWELL WINS PLACE AS VETERAN KEEPER OF RECORDS

Jacksonville Delegation Reports Big Day in Decatur—Recent Gains in Membership Offset Loss—Tribute to D. O. K. K.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 17.—Altho total figures show a loss of 1,000 for the year in the Illinois Pythian Lodge, reports of H. P. Caldwell, Grand Keeper of Records and Seal today, showed that there had been a steady gain in the last six months and the report, as a whole, was not considered discouraging. Previous losses were attributed to lower rates of other lodges, and many diversions which for a time caused a trend away from fraternalism.

For the fortieth consecutive time, H. P. Caldwell was elected to office, altho a strong fight was made against him by James G. White of Rockford. Sweepson Y. Whitlock of Tuscola, won over John W. Carter of Decatur for grand outer guard from which officers are promoted until they reach the grand chancellorship. W. J. Rutledge of Chicago was re-elected grand trustee. Officers who take their places by succession are as follows:

Past Grand Chancellor: Augustus A. Partlow, Danville.

Grand Chancellor: John J. Reeve, Jacksonville.

Vice Grand Chancellor: Walter C. Hayes, Belvidere.

Grand Prelate: Smith L. Von Fossen, Beardstown.

Grand Master at arms: Edward T. Guthrie, Mattoon.

Grand Inner Guard: Andrew O'Donnell, Chicago.

Reports on the fund for transient Pythians showed that the work had proceeded very satisfactory and a recommendation for a generous appropriation will be considered in Wednesday's business session.

The special train bearing one hundred and fifty Pythians back to Jacksonville arrived Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, bearing a tired but joyous company. The day had been a strenuous one and a hot box had delayed the train on the return trip but all this was forgotten when the victorious Arabs and their fellow Knights recalled the victory of the day previous.

The Jacksonville delegation was led by an automobile in which rode J. J. Reeve, grand chancellor elect; Mrs. Reeve, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Claus, Misses Claus and Godfrey, Edward Tendick dressed as Uncle Sam came next and after him marched Jay Rodgers with the Jacksonville pennant. Next came the members of Ilderim Temple No. 62, led by Vol Sevier, Fred Jameson, Charles Padgett and Harry Slover. Jeffries' band followed and behind the band were Mayor Rodgers and Rev. W. E. Spooner, who carried banners. The drill team followed, and then the rank and file of local Knights.

A tribute to the D. O. K. K. was uttered Monday at the dedicatory exercises for the home by John A. Brown of Vandalia, supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, who said in part:

"In our great fraternity we have four wonderful departments. First, the Uniform Rank, the military, the show rank, the dignified soldier division, wherein young men can be drilled in the tactics of war. The nation is interested in this department because only nations grow great by war as well as by peace."

"The Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan has become noted not only for drill work but for the splendid manner in which they have always assumed their responsibility in the order. They truly have caught the spirit of the times, when they become the playground of the order where worth and truth go hand in hand in this busy, bustling world of ours. They can arouse the Pythian spirit. They are performing their work well."

"The Pythian Sisters, another branch well worthy and competent in the work in this order. Every temple is an inspiration. Men have always done better work for the world by having the aid of woman. She knows a thousand needs for the welfare of humanity where men are either too busy or too indolent to look after them. Woman is the real humanitarian of the world."

"We now come to a home where the memory and fraternal love breathes most fondly. Hearts warmed with the spirit that moves men and women to do good has wrought this home today. This is truly our home. We have built it with a clear understanding of our responsibility."

"There can be no dismal thoughts of cold charity here. No key is turned except in the spirit of kindness and no work is well done only by the stimulus of love. Here is where we look with tenderness upon the faults and failures of our brethren. Here is where we invite them to come in and eat, drink and be our guests. We have invited them to come in and we have pledged them comfort and peace and a resting place for life."

REPORT MADE ON STATE FAIR SCHOOL

Miss Ruth Hembrough Writes An Interesting Story of Domestic Science Work.

The following paper, written by Miss Ruth Hembrough and read before the Franklin Institute, is a report of the Girls' State Fair School, held recently at Springfield.

The eighteenth annual session of the Girls' State Fair School of Domestic Science was held in the woman's building on the state fair grounds, September 7th to 22nd, 1916.

Each county is entitled to one representative or more in case all counties are not represented. Therefore giving some counties two or more representatives. There were in attendance 101 girls representing 53 counties.

The building as arranged now accommodates 102 girls. The dormitories and office are on the second floor. The lecture room is on the first floor. Dining room and kitchen are in the basement. The dormitories are furnished single bed, wash stand and mirror for each girl. The large dormitory accommodates 81 girls and the two small-room accommodations 18 and 14 respectively.

The school is under the personal supervision of a woman's board appointed by the president of the State Board of Agriculture. The purpose of the school is the training of young women in better methods of cooking, housekeeping, care of the sick, etc., therefore helping them to be better homemakers. More than 1,200 girls have had advantages of this school. It is one of the best short courses given in the state for the length of time. The course is for two weeks, a week before the fair and continued through fair week. There are three lectures given each day and at the end of the course an examination is given. Scholarships are given to the three making the highest grades, who have graduated from an accredited high school.

Mrs. Nellie Kedzie Jones of Auburndale, Wis., has been director of the school for twelve years. She has had long experience in Home Economics and is one of the best teachers and demonstrators. Her assistants were Miss Fannie Brooks, of the University of Illinois, in charge of hygiene and dormitory work; Miss Olive C. Percival, also from the University of Illinois, in charge of the baking; Miss Lena Laws, assisting with cooking, and Mrs. McNary, in charge of the dining room work.

The lectures on Hygiene given by the trained nurse, Miss Brooks, were from 9 o'clock to 9:45 every morning. The following are some of her subjects: The Bed, Personal Hygiene, Hygiene to Mothers, Giving a Fever and Cleansing Bath, Food and Diseases, Simple Devices for the Care of the Sick, Bandages, Patent Medicine.

The household science lectures, given by Mrs. Jones, were from 10 o'clock to 11 and from 2 o'clock to 3 every day. Her subjects were: Table Setting, Bread Making, Food Values, Breakfast Foods, Soups, Beverages, Vegetables, Fireless Cooker, Cake and Pie, Cutting Up of Fore and Hind Quarters of Beef, How to Buy and How to Cook the Various Parts, Deserts, Salads, Frozen Foods, Frying.

The girls are divided into five groups to do the work. That is, preparing meals, baking, dining room work, dish wiping and dormitory work. Each group does a different work each day. Each group chooses a captain from their number whose duty is to see that each member of her group is on duty. From 3 o'clock until 4:30 or 5 the girls were free to do as they wished.

Another feature of the school which was very much enjoyed and also appreciated was the entertainment. On Monday afternoon we walked to Lincoln's monument and then ate a picnic supper in Lincoln park. The next afternoon we went to Camp Lincoln to see the soldiers drill. There we were drenched by a sudden downpour of rain. Wednesday afternoon we were entertained by Miss Dunne at the governor's mansion, where we spent a most pleasant half-hour. From there we went to the supreme court building, State House and Lincoln's home. Saturday evening we entertained the Boys' State Fair school. On Sunday we attended any church we wished to. Monday evening of fair week we attended the "Last Days of Pompeii" which was very much enjoyed. Tuesday afternoon seats were reserved in the coliseum to hear Presidential Nominee Hughes speak.

One of the frequent complaints about the school is the rule that no pupils can return. As this is the rule we who have attended must be satisfied, but every girl who can go should make it her aim to be a student of this school some year. It is the most helpful short course to girls that I know of. I have appreciated the work very much, and also the instructors who had charge of the work.

The present building is used also for the meeting of the Board of Agriculture, and as it is also arranged for the girls to do the work, it is hoped that in the future there will be a new, large building built. Then it will accommodate more than one girl from each county.

BEFORE SUPREME COURT
Judge M. T. Layman and Thomas Worthington went Tuesday evening to Springfield to appear for oral argument before the supreme court in the case of George Wood vs. Iven Wood et al. known as the Woods will case. Hugh Green will go to Springfield today to assist in the case. Judge Layman appears for the appellant and Worthington, Reeve and Green for the appellees.

The Ministerial Association will hold a special meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building this morning at 10:30 for the purpose of considering the Armenian situation.

SPORT LETTER

Lafayette, Ind.—The "duck waddle," a mode of locomotion introduced to the Purdue football players last spring by Coach Cleo O'Donnell, has been supplanted by the "stork waddle" as practiced by Huffine, one of the finds of the season. Huffine has been trying out his new gait on the freshmen and so far they have been unable to stop him and it was a freshman who gave the stride its name.

Huffine had just finished wading, stiff-leg and with feet wide apart so that both knees could not be encircled by the arms of the yearlings, thru the entire freshman eleven, when a freshman, just getting up from his efforts to tackle the varsity player, remarked, "He runs just like a stork" and since then the gait has been dubbed the "Stork waddle."

Indianapolis—Plans for the inter-sectional football game between Indiana University and Tufts University, of Medford, Mass., to be played here Oct. 28, are well under way and it is believed there will be a record breaking attendance. Charles A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction, who is chairman of the state wide committee to promote the game, has appointed the members in each of the 92 counties of the state and outlined their work. A number of other committees have been appointed and are actively at work.

Bloomington, Ind.—Edwin Allen Sellers of Indianapolis, has been chosen captain of the Indiana cross-country squad this year by the members of the squad. He is a junior at Indiana University and took an active interest in track work last year. He won first place in the north-western meet last year. Because of injuries he did not get to finish the season with the varsity cross country team last year.

Franklin, Ind.—Hot weather a few days ago is believed to have caused the number of candidates for the Franklin football team to dwindle, and as a result Coach Thurber has expressed some displeasure. Four of the regular men are on the hospital list, and the scrubs have been making a good showing against the first team. The recent practice

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

EAT BIG MEALS! NO SOUR, ACID STOMACH INDIGESTION OR GAS

"Pape's Diapiesin" is Quickest, Surest Stomach Relief Known—Try It!

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching, no undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nauseating, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

Chicago.—Rumors that Joseph B. Tinker will be deposed as manager of the Chicago National League club next season have not been officially denied. While President Weeghman is known to have been disappointed with the showing of his club during the last season, he asserts that he has done nothing whatever on plans for 1917 and that he does not know what will be done.

Several baseball leaders have been mentioned as successors to Tinker, among them being Jack Hendricks, Frank Chance, Larry Doyle and Dick Kinsella. Kinsella long has been identified as scout for the New York Nationals.

There is said to be a general feeling in the national league against Tinker because of the part he played in organizing the Federal League during the winter of 1914-15.

Chicago—Sidney Hatch, winner of a score of marathon races, has started training for his 100 mile run from Milwaukee to Chicago set for Oct. 17. Hatch hopes to set a new record for the distance, which has been covered in 12-07.

The veteran long distance runner will be accompanied by several automobiles with watchers. Arrangements will be made to have hot food and drinks at various towns along the course, to be picked up by the autoists and served to Hatch so as not to slow his progress.

The start will be made from Milwaukee at 8 o'clock at night. Hatch expects to finish in Chicago between 12 and 1 o'clock the following afternoon.

Chicago—Chicagoans who had hoped to see a revival of boxing in Gary, Ind., face disappointment. Ministers are so strongly opposed to the sport that all plans to conduct matches there during the coming winter have been cancelled.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—John Maulbetsch, star half-back of the University of Michigan football eleven, may be used as a drop kicker by Yost this season. Maulbetsch has been practicing kicking since reporting for fall training and while his method of holding the ball with one hand has not won coach Yost's approval, Maulbetsch has shown some improvement. Michigan is in need of a reliable kicker.

Detroit—Bill Carrigan, manager of the champion Boston Americans, told Manager Jennings, of the Detroit club recently that Howard Ehmke, Jennings' recruit twirler, will be a star next season. Jennings and his catchers, Stange, Spencer and Billy Sullivan have all declared Ehmke has shown as fine an assortment of pitching as they have seen for a long time.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—Michigan may have another great freshman football team this fall. More men reported for autumn practice to Coach McGinnis of the first year squad, than Yost obtained for his varsity machine.

Lafayette, Ind.—A fall tennis tournament is to be held at Purdue University to encourage the sport. The meet also will enable the coach to pick a representative team for next season.

Lafayette, Ind.—In order that Coach O'Connor of Purdue University may get a better idea of the track and field material he will have to work with next spring, a fall handicap meet will be held on Stuart field on the afternoon of the Purdue-Iowa football game, Oct. 21.

Ann Arbor, Mich.—John Codd '17, has been appointed acting captain of the University of Michigan tennis team in place of "Howdy" Sherwood captain-elect. Sherwood has written that ill health will prevent him from returning to the University.

SWITCH GORGAS TO CENTER.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Gorgas, the 200-pound guard of the University of Chicago football team, was switched to center in today's practice, and Hans Norgren was drilled as quarterback. White, O'Connor and Marun made up the new backfield, with which Coach Stag is experimenting to make up the team which will oppose Northwestern University next Saturday. Fullback Shaffer was still on the injured list today with a sore ankle that has disturbed him all this season. He is expected to play against Northwestern, nevertheless.

PLAN REVIVAL OF WINTER SPORTS

Chicago, Oct. 17.—A revival of winter sports is planned by the American National Hockey League, whose program for a series of inter-city games was today made known by Dr. P. M. Selkass of Pittsburgh, president. St. Louis, Detroit, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Brooklyn and New York and two teams in Chicago comprise the circuit.

GIVES ROBINSON $5,000.

PROSPERITY MARKED AMERICAN LEAGUE SEASON

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Prosperity marked the American League season just closed, according to B. B. Johnson, president of the organization.

Only one club—Philadelphia—lost money, he said, and some clubs practically made up what money they lost through the invasion of the Federal league.

OBITUARY

Lena May Blackburn, daughter of George and Lennie Blackburn, was born at Winchester, Ill., August 15, 1887. On Nov. 3, 1915, she was united in marriage to William H. Stephenson of Lynville. To this union was born one child, Opal Irene. Mrs. Stephenson's death came as a shock and surprise to her immediate family, being in her usual health up to a week before her summons.

Through some misunderstanding, word came to the Blackburn family that their son Clarence had been killed in the powder mills explosion at Grafton, Ills. At this news Mrs. Stephenson fainted away, but in a few hours the family was assured that their son was not at that place, being with the Western Cartridge Co., of Alton. But Mrs. Stephenson did not seem to rally and the physician pronounced her ailment leakage of the liver, caused from the shock.

Mrs. Stephenson passed away at 11:30 o'clock Thursday, October 12, 1916. She was a member of the Lynville Christian church and of the Ladies Aid Society. Funeral services were held from the Christian church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, being one of the largest funerals ever held at that place. Rev. L. R. Cronkrite, pastor of the church in charge. Rev. H. A. M. E. church assisting. A quartette consisting of Mrs. L. R. Cronkrite, Mrs. John Heaton, Edwin Gordon, and W. W. Gillham, with Miss Virginia Gordon at the piano, furnished the music.

There were many beautiful flowers which were mute evidence of the esteem in which she was held. These were in charge of Misses Pearl Fligg, Emma Tuke, Susie Dickinson and Mrs. J. O. Parker. From the Chapman and Edwards Laundry was a wreath, from the Ladies Aid Society a wreath, a large spray of roses from the Lynville I. O. O. F., a beautiful pillow with Lena and many many sprays from friends from Springfield and the surrounding community. The bearers were A. E. Hills, Charles Tuke, J. O. Parker, Earl Landis, Roy Heaton and Roy Fligg. Interment was in Kinsdale Cemetery, using the auto funeral service. About 35 automobiles were in the procession. Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Edwards, Mrs. Mary Wilmarth, Mr. and Mrs. Will Edwards, John Kuepfer, Miss Bertha Yerker, Springfield, Mrs. Lottie Henderson and daughter, Beardstown, Mrs. Mary Blair, Kirt and Bert Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blackburn, Winchester.

The family and husband have the deepest sympathy of the community.

RETURNED FROM THE CONVENTION

Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Pontius, C. L. Dewey and Mrs. Edward Caldwell have returned from Des Moines, Iowa, where they attended the sessions of the International Missionary convention of the Christian church. The sessions were held in the great coliseum capable of seating 7500 people and it was a time of deep interest to all persons interested in the cause of spreading the gospel. From all parts of the United States as well as from India, Mexico, China and Japan delegates were present and the sessions were full of vigor and uplifted thought.

A pleasing feature was the music by the Gillman-Hatley ladies' quartet of Billington, Oregon. The ladies were especially gifted musicians and their efforts delighted all who heard them.

Sunday afternoon the Lord's Supper was observed and on that occasion the vast coliseum was packed to its utmost capacity and the services thruout were deeply impressive. The program was printed and the responses of the people were prompt and in unison, and deep solemnity characterized the services thruout.

The convention next year is to meet in Kansas City.

Alva Reesoot of Concord was in the city yesterday on business.

GOOD WORK DOING AT N. OAKLAND SCHOOL

Miss Mary Ogle is the Teacher "This Year—Some Improvements Made In Building."

Situated some five miles northeast of the city is the North Oakland schoolhouse, located on the crest of a small hill and commanding a good view in almost any direction. The land all about the place is good Morgan county soil and the people are generally thrifty and well to do, good citizens worthy of the county in which they live. A short time since a Journal reporter had the pleasure of visiting this school and was courteously received by the capable teacher, Miss Mary Ogle, who tendered him the freedom of the school and an invitation to address the pupils. The visitor found the boys and girls bright and intelligent and ready to hear what was said to them and anxious to learn what they could of the great world across the sea. A number of questions at the close also indicated a good degree of interest and intelligence regarding what had been said to them.

Miss Ogle said the directors, Messrs. Arch Bridgman, John Phillips and Alvin Carpenter, had recently put in a new and latest improved heating apparatus, fixed the windows and had done some other work in conformity with the state law. It is to be hoped that later on some shade trees are set out as more are needed.

The neighborhood is not very thickly settled and many of the children have quite a distance to go to reach the schoolhouse.

The pupils are: Earl Beck, Katie Beck, Mildred Beck, Dorothy Bourne, Alma Bridgman, Paul Carpenter, Russel Flynn, Paul Flynn, Eril Flynn, Edith Petefish, Beulah Petefish, Iven Petefish, Lola Hoover, Dan Hoover, Dorris Hoover, Lynn Hoover, Mable Phillips, Blanche Phillips, Juynne Phillips, Juneta Stevens, Hattie Stevens, Lola Stevens, Felix Stevens, Ollie Stevens.

Rev. W. R. Dyer of Arenzville spent Tuesday in the city on business.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENCE

Mexico City, Oct.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The decree calling for the elections of delegates to the constitutional assembly which will meet in Queretaro December 1 to discuss and approve a new constitution for Mexico has been given the widest publicity throughout the republic. The decree was telegraphed in full to the governors of all the states in order to avoid delay in publication everywhere. In all garrison towns the proclamation was made public on its receipt by means of a military parade thru the streets with troops and bands followed by the public reading of the decree. It also was prominently posted in public places and published in all available newspapers. The decree provides that state governors, residents of municipalities and others in authority are not eligible for election as delegates to the congress. The first three sessions of the assembly will be governed by the rules of procedure formerly used by the chamber of deputies the assembly itself making such amendments to those rules as conditions make advisable. The assembly will also pass on the credentials of the delegates and designate the duties of each.

The decree provides that delegates may not be molested for opinions they express in carrying out the duties to which they are elected and they will not be subject to prosecution for ordinary misdemeanors if being necessary to remove them from the office of delegate before they can be prosecuted under the civil statutes. The charges of official misconduct which may be brought against the deputies will be judged by the assembly itself.

Those shall be considered eligible for election as deputies who are citizens of the state from which they seek election or have resided in the state six months or who were born in the state altho they afterwards removed elsewhere. It is also provided those shall be eligible who were citizens of a state at the time of the "quartelazo" (arrest and killing of Madero) but who afterwards demonstrated by concrete acts that they supported the Constitutionalist cause.

The decree states that one more than fifty per cent of the delegates must be present in order to constitute a quorum. If when the first session is called there is not a majority present those present shall be empowered to seat the alternates of the absentees. If any delegate be absent three consecutive sessions without permission his alternate will be seated. The same will apply if he is absent five times in 15 days. Alternates who do not attend will lose their pay. Delegates will receive 60 pesos a day and traveling expenses to and from Queretaro.

The following form of oath is provided: "The president of the assembly. 'Do you swear to fulfill loyally and patriotically the duties of deputy to the constitutional congress which office the people have conferred upon you, guarding in all things the reestablishment of the constitutional order of the nation in accord with the plan of Guadalupe of March 26, 1913, and the additions issued in Vera Cruz December 12, 1914, and amended September 14, 1916?' The Deputy: 'Yes, I swear.' The President: 'If you do not so act, the nation will demand it of you.'"

When the constitution is adopted by the assembly each delegate must sign it and swear to uphold its provisions at the last session of the assembly and when the new constitution is published all authorities and employees of the government civil and military will be compelled to swear to adhere to it.

ing from the West Coast of Africa and from America. A striking feature of the invasion is that the blacks so numerous on the city streets generally are arrayed in garments of the latest cuts and hues. The color schemes usually are rather loud, the negroes from Africa wearing with those from the United States in a riot of checks, stripes, vivid neckties, lurid hose and bright yellow shoes.

At first this invasion puzzled the authorities here, but a little investigation tended to solve at least a part of the mystery. The bulk of the blacks it seems have been recruited on the West Coast to work as firemen on steamers whose white crews presumably have become reduced through the war. They are not all seafarers, however, for many appear to have signed for one trip only and have obtained employment here in the short-handed factories at lucrative wages. This is particularly true of the American negroes, many of whom have come over as mulattoes or other workers on ships in American trade.

The West Africans speak English of course, but not very fluently. The American negroes being quite glib of tongue are more interesting to the law-abiding street crowds. The American blacks do not go to all the extremes of dress affected by the Africans, who in their new found wealth and European surroundings have proved profitable customers to the cheaper class of tailors.

Melbourne, Australia, Oct.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Pursuant to the decision of the Federal Labor caucus about two weeks ago the question whether compulsory military service shall obtain in the Commonwealth for the needs of the war will be submitted by the Government to the voters of Australia in the form of a referendum on October 28. In the meantime if under the voluntary system the recruits during the month of September fall short of 32,399 the government will call up single men for home training under the Defence Act; and if the referendum carries for conscription these and other classes of men will be sent to the front. Registration for the referendum will end on September 18. Australian soldiers on various fronts will vote upon the issue between that date and October 28.

In order to persuade laborite bodies, which in general show antagonism to conscription in any form to change their attitude and support conscription, the Prime Minister, William M. Hughes, is now upon a tour of the state capitals. He has already addressed the ruling Labor organizations in secret session in Melbourne, Sydney and Adelaide. In Sydney and Melbourne his plea was met with flat refusal. But the powerful trades-unionist element is not altogether opposed to conscription and the issue resolves itself upon a question of whether Labor will be able to vote solidly against the proposed substitution of conscription for voluntarism. Outside the laborite ranks the Australian public seems to be strongly for conscription. It is a foregone conclusion, also, that the Australian troops representing all parties will vote for conscription. Approximately 2,700,000 persons will ballot on the referendum.

BIRTHDAY of NATIONAL IMPORT-ANCE

Join Us In Celebrating

It is fitting that the nation celebrate the birth of the incandescent lamp.

Thirty-seven years ago Thomas A. Edison, seated beside the work-bench in a tiny shop at Menlo Park, adjusted the wires to that experimental lamp, and as the pale yellow glow appeared and then grew bright he knew and we knew that his dream of commercial electric lighting had become an assured reality.

His invention has given us a new world. It has lightened household labors; it has brightened our very lives. It is worthy of a nationwide celebration.

We ask you to join with us in commemorating this event in a practical way by participating in our

Special Lamp Offer

We are making this Anniversary Celebration doubly interesting by making all users of electric light the following special lamp offer:

Will be sold Saturday, October 21 only, for 21 cents each or 5 for $1.00. Limit of five lamps to each purchaser. Try the new Lamp. Celebrate in a practical way by saving money.

STOCKS FORFEIT GAINS DURING FINAL HOUR

Dealings Which Again Approximate 1,340,000 Shares, Seem Mainly of a Professional Character.

New York, Oct. 17.—During the greater part of today's active stock market trading was conducted on an almost steady advance in prices. In the last hour, however, much of this gain was forfeited the list closing with an irregular undertone.

It was a matter of general comment that dealings, which again approximated the large total of 1,340,000 shares, seemed mainly of a professional character, lacking the investment demand of recent weeks. It is not unlikely that the selling at concessions toward the close was precipitated in part by a sudden rise in call money to four per cent.

No special reason was offered to account for the hardening of demand loans, but last week's bank statement, which showed a further pronounced contraction of reserves to the lowest figures since the middle of the year, may have been the impelling cause.

United States steel once more fluctuated between twenty and twenty five percent of the whole, raw-iron, Reading, Republic Steel, Rock Island and such relatively unimportant issues as hide and leather, International Paper and Union Bag and Paper each supplying a very large quota. New records included General Motors which rose to 790, ten points and American Beet Sugar two points to 100. Other sugar shares were in steady demand at higher levels.

Western Union featured the utilities, being among the most active stocks at a gain of almost four points and fertilizers and petroleum denoted accumulation. Bonds were strong with extensive trading in Internationals. Total sales par value $6,625,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.
